Plaintiffs,

v.

RIMINI STREET, INC., et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:10-cv-00106-LRH-VCF

RIMINI STREET, INC.'S MOTION
 TO SEAL PORTIONS OF RESPONSE TO ORACLE'S OBJECTION TO
 MAGISTRATE JUDGE
 FERENBACH'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION ON ORACLE'S MOTION FOR
 SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO RULE
 37 SANCTIONS

NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

Pursuant to the Stipulated Protective Order governing confidentiality of documents entered by the Court on May 10, 2010 (ECF No. 55, “Protective Order”), Rules 5.2(e)–(f) and 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Local Rule 10-5(b), Defendant Rimini Street, Inc. (“Rimini”) respectfully requests that the Court seal portions of Rimini Street, Inc.’s Response to Oracle’s Objection to Magistrate Judge Ferenbach’s Report and Recommendation on Oracle’s Motion for Sanctions Pursuant to Rule 37 (the “Response” or the “Confidential Materials”).

A public, redacted version of the Confidential Materials was filed on October 19, 2020. An unredacted version of this document will be subsequently filed under seal with the Court and linked to the filing of this motion. This Motion to Seal is based on this Notice of Motion and the accompanying Memorandum of Points and Authorities.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

Rimini respectfully requests that the Court seal the Confidential Materials because they contain confidential information regarding Rimini’s business processes or information that Oracle has designated as “Confidential Information” or “Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” pursuant to the Protective Order. Good cause exists to seal the Confidential Materials, as set forth below.

This Court has regularly granted motions to file under seal similar information, both in Rimini I and Rimini II. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 226, 325, 518, 904, 990, 1107, 1228, 1250, 1261; see also Rimini II, No. 14-CV-1699-LRH-DJA (D. Nev.), ECF Nos. 127, 137, 222, 280–282, 287, 333–334, 371, 391, 434–436, 602, 625–628, 760–768, 836–849, 1122, 1191.

I. ARGUMENT

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) provides broad discretion for a trial court to permit sealing of court documents for, inter alia, the protection of “a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Rimini has designated as confidential certain documents and information filed in support of the Opposition because they contain confidential information about Rimini’s proprietary processes.

A. Highly Confidential Information About Rimini's Proprietary Processes

Rimini moves to seal proprietary information regarding the ways in which Rimini provides services to its clients and runs its business operations. This information is reflected in portions of the Confidential Materials. In particular, portions of the Response contain a description of Rimini's proprietary technical processes.

Under the Protective Order, "all non-public information" regarding "business plans" or "proprietary technical information and specifications" are properly designated confidential, and "extremely sensitive . . . non-public information" including trade secrets are properly designated as highly confidential. Disclosure of this information in the Response would advantage Rimini's competitors, disclosing trade secrets that would allow Rimini's competitors to adopt methods that have made Rimini successful, and more easily allow them to compete in the third-party software service marketplace. See Hologram USA, Inc. v. Pulse Evolution Corp., No. 14-CV-772, 2015 WL 105793, at *2 (D. Nev. Jan. 7, 2015) (granting motion to seal where documents "contain[ed] information that could injure Plaintiffs' competitive posture in the ... industry"); Spectrum Pharm. Inc. v. Sandoz Inc., No. 12-CV-111, 2014 WL 4202540, at *2 (D. Nev. Aug. 21, 2014) (granting motion to seal where documents contained "proprietary, business practice, trade secret, and technical information that could injure the parties' competitive posture"); Clark v. Metro. Life Ins. Co., No. 08-CV-158, 2010 WL 1006823, at *1 (D. Nev. Mar. 16, 2010) (granting motion to seal materials that would "bring attention to MetLife's confidential internal business deliberations, organization, and capabilities").

This Court has previously granted motions to file under seal portions of documents containing this type of confidential information regarding Rimini's internal business processes. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 226, 325, 518, 904, 990, 1107, 1228, 1250, 1261; see also Rimini II, No. 14-CV-1699-LRH-DJA, ECF Nos. 627, 1240. Sealing references to Rimini's proprietary information will not frustrate the public's visibility into the judicial process because Rimini requests the targeted sealing of particularly sensitive information and leaves all other documents unsealed.

B. Information Designated Highly Confidential Pursuant to the Protective Order

The Protective Order provides that:

Counsel for any Designating Party may designate any Discovery Material as “Confidential Information” or “Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” under the terms of this Protective Order only if such counsel in good faith believes that such Discovery Material contains such information and is subject to protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c). The designation by any Designating Party of any Discovery Material as “Confidential Information” or “Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall constitute a representation that any attorney for the Designating Party reasonably believes there is a valid basis for such designation.

Protective Order ¶ 2.

Rimini requests that the Court seal portions of the Opposition that describe or otherwise reveal information that Oracle has designated “Highly Confidential” under the terms of the Protective Order. By designating the information “Highly Confidential,” the designating party has represented that the information cited is subject to protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c). Protective Order ¶ 2. This Court has regularly granted motions to file under seal similar information, both in Rimini I and Rimini II. See, e.g., ECF Nos. 226, 325, 518, 904, 990, 1107, 1228, 1250, 1261; see also Rimini II, No. 14-CV-1699-LRH-DJA (D. Nev.), ECF Nos. 280, 391, 460, 518, 541, and 549.

II. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Rimini respectfully requests that the Court grant leave to file under seal the Confidential Materials.
